ABOUT THIS FESTIVAL

Edinburgh International Film Festival explores new ideas in cinema, inviting local and international audiences to engage with a dynamic program of features, documentaries, and shorts. Last year the Festival showcased 151 features from 46 countries and included 17 World Premieres.

Intimate in its scale, ambitious in its scope, and fueled by pure passion for cinema in all its manifestations, Edinburgh International Film Festival seeks to spotlight the most exciting and innovative new film talent. The Festival has been a champion of emerging British talent throughout its history, presenting world premieres of formative films by Bill Forsyth, Danny Boyle and Stephen Frears, among many others.

Some of the Festival's guests in recent years have included Kevin Bacon and Kyra Sedgwick, Stanley Tucci, Jennifer Lawrence, Tilda Swinton, Ewan McGregor, Robert Carlyle, Cate Blanchett, Clint Eastwood, Sir Sean Connery, and directors David Cronenberg and Jacques Tati

EDINBURGH

Visit Edinburgh and discover a city like no other! Edinburgh is a vibrant city steeped in history and culture – the perfect destination to experience a charming blend of old and new. This is Scotland's compact, hilly capital, with a medieval Old Town and elegant Georgian New Town featuring gardens and neoclassical buildings. Looming over the city is Edinburgh Castle, home to Scotland's crown jewels and the Stone of Destiny, used in the coronation of Scottish rulers. Arthur's Seat is an imposing peak in Holyrood Park with sweeping views, and Calton Hill is topped with monuments and memorials.

Edinburgh is a diverse and vibrant destination for both locals and visitors alike, with an eclectic array of museums and galleries, shopping and theatre, along with amazing food. From the rich—sometimes hidden!—history that surrounds your every step, to the wealth of lush, green spaces peppered around the city center, Edinburgh continually surprises, delights and inspires. You'll discover that most of the city's highlights are within walking distance from each other or a short bus ride away.
