

The Galápagos Islands are a magical place. Imagine Charles Darwin sailing around these islands discovering different species at each stop. I was lucky enough to experience the beauty of the Galápagos with Celebrity Cruises a few years ago aboard Celebrity Xpedition. They did an amazing job with the landings, food, educational lectures, and everything else you would expect in this beautiful part of the world. Now, with Celebrity Flora, they've taken things to new levels. Flora allows you to cruise the Galápagos in a level of luxury that has been missing from this part of the world. Every stateroom is a suite offering personal suite attendant service, meals are curated by a Michelin-starred chef, and much more. After a couple of rough years, cruising is back! With dozens of cruise lines to sail on, how do you choose the best one for you and your family? Do you go with a smaller ship that might have more luxury but fewer on-board offerings, or a larger ship that has something for everyone, but may not have the luxury feel you're looking for? The Retreat by Celebrity solves this problem by offering a luxurious enclave with beautiful staterooms, a dedicated concierge, private restaurant, and much more. The Retreat is available on all of Celebrity's beautiful ships and offers you the ability to enjoy everything you've come to expect from Celebrity, now surrounded by a new level of luxury. The Retreat is all suites, all exclusive, and all included. Take advantage of our limited-time specialty dining offer and scan the QR code below to learn more about our latest offers.
